

Friends Forever.

I could skip a heartbeat, but I would survive,
I could be in a car crash, and still be alive.
The clouds could fall out of the sky,
The oceans could disappear, and all turn dry.

Yet life would not be the same without someone like you,
You're there when I need you to help me through.
Through the good times and through the bad,
Be them happy, or be them sad.

Life goes on, and people change,
Yet through it all, our friendship remains the same.
Such is life, and how things come to be.
Just thought you should know,
HOW MUCH YOU MEAN TO ME.
